Greetings!

If you haven't already done so, please check out the Benjamin Rush Institute's Facebook page. Every week, I trawl through copious information from the Internet and other sources to bring you the best of the best articles on healthcare policy, and medical ethics, innovation and economics. It's kind of like Jared Rhoads's healthpolicy.tv, only for news and information that's mostly in print format.

We encourage you to subscribe to our Facebook page - like it for sure! - and let us know if the news you find there is valuable. Submissions and suggestions are highly encouraged. Send them to BenjaminRushInstitute@gmail.com.

Students - be sure to check out this issue's Bulletin Board for the first news about BRI's Leadership Conference 2015!

In partnership,

Beth Haynes, MD
Executive Director

The Doctor's Lounge: Dr. Haynes interview with Hal Scherz

On September 25th, Dr. Hal Scherz, founder and president of Docs 4 Patient Care, and BRI Speakers Bureau member, interviewed BRI Executive Director Dr. Beth Haynes on America's Web Radio. The Doctor's Lounge program, a project of the brand new Docs 4 Patient Care Foundation, highlights current events in medicine and healthcare policy. "I've been accused of just wanting people to die on the streets. It is really important that we bring a professional, informed debate to medical campuses and expand the dialogue about healthcare freedom and workable solutions," says Dr. Haynes. For all this and much more, please tune in to this 60-minute interview, and check out the archived Doctor's Lounge programs on America's Web Radio.

BRI BULLETIN BOARD: Building a BOLD Future - BRI-LC2015

Thursday, March 26th - Saturday, March 28th, 2015

BUILDING A BOLD FUTURE

BRI Student Leaders - mark your calendars! The BRI Leadership Conference (affectionately called 'BRI-LC') is officially here!

2015's theme is Building a Bold Future. With so much in your medical careers at stake, we want to bring you the information, ideas and solutions that will really empower you to step boldly, confidently and happily into a bright professional future.

Destination: Washington, D.C. Conference session locations include the beautiful Heritage Foundation building, and we will have workshops and speakers that you won't want to miss.

More details to follow, but now is the time to determine which of your Chapter Leaders will attend. We typically sponsor up to two Chapter leaders, so build your attending coalition now!
